The cat and the mice

A big, fat cat wanted to kill all the mice in the barn. One day all of the 20 mice met to talk about the great harm that she was doing them. Each one told of some plan by which to keep out of her way.

"Do as I say," said an old grey mouse that was thought to be very wise. "Do as I say. Hang a bell on the cat's neck. Then, when we hear it ring, we will know that she is coming and can scamper out of her way."

"Good! good!" said all the other mice as one ran to get the bell.

"Now which of you will hang this bell on the cat's neck?" said the old grey mouse.

"Not I! not I!" said all the mice together.

And they scampered away to their holes.
